

Louise Lawler, Crazy, 2011; No Drones (adjusted to fit), 2010/2011; Plexi (adjusted to fit), 2010/2011

Picture in picture – art in context

☞ A work of art is produced by many different things. It isn't just the result of an unencumbered creative act. [...] An art [work] is always a collaboration with what came before and what comes after you [...] No work is really produced alone. (1)

- ▷ Take a photo of an artwork: a painting, an installation, a photograph, a sculpture, a video or something else.
- ▷ How is the artwork exhibited?
- ▷ Address this in your photograph.
- ▷ Edit it and present it in a way that highlights the special features of the artwork, or changes them with a new context.

☞ Photography, appropriation art, conceptual art, new media

Camera/smartphone, PC/tablet